

GROW with us

We are looking for a Recruitment & HR Manager to join the newly created Ecology and Environment Division within Origin Enterprises Plc.

We have plans to significantly grow the Ecology and Environment Division and need a focussed and dedicated Recruitment & HR Manager who can work closely with the Division to provide a proactive and value-added recruitment partnership with a variety of stakeholders across the Division and work closely with the team to implement the business strategy from a people perspective.

We are looking for someone with a strong recruitment background and knowledge in Ecology and Environment sector and plenty of recruitment experience at a senior level, having worked with leaders and managers on recruitment solutions.

This excellent career opportunity is well suited to someone who can demonstrate strong skills in recruitment and HR practices and can work with teams, leaders, managers and key stakeholders to help build organisation and people capability.

This is a fantastic opportunity for a Recruitment / HR Professional with a passion for recruitment ready to take on a new challenge at an exciting time in the organisation.

Our offices are located across the UK and Ireland. Whilst the role is home based, there is an expectation to travel frequently and a full UK driving licence is essential, along with any relevant qualifications/ degree.

Applicants should please send CV and covering letter (in strict confidence) to: recruitment@originenterprises.com
